

Who can help

In addition to the support provided by the statutory services, there is a network of local, regional and national organisations which provide information and a range of support to children with an ASD and their families.

In the table below, space has been left for you to add your local contacts, where available.

Autism-specific organisations

autism.west midlands

Offers information, support and provides details of local services to parents. It organises training and conferences open to parents, carers and professionals throughout the West Midlands.

Regional Contact

18 Highfield Road
Edgbaston
Birmingham
B15 3DU

Tel 0121 450 7580

Email

info@autismwestmidlands.org.uk

Web

www.autismwestmidlands.org.uk

Local Contact

NAS

National Autistic Society

The UK organisation for people with autism and those who care for them. The NAS works in many areas to help people with autism live their lives with as much independence as possible.

National Contact

393 City Road
London EC1V 1NE

Tel 020 7833 2299

General enquiries

Helpline 0845 070 4004

Email nas@nas.org.uk

Web www.nas.org.uk

Local Contact

